Let there be light!

Daylight savings time ends this Saturday, March 10.

For me, that means more light, more fun, more flowers and green grass. It means birds will be singing and humming birds and bees will be humming. When I think of Daylight Saving Time ending, I think of the 1977 hit "Let there be Rock" by AC/DC.

This is the coolest of the cool light up toys from MFJ. A super bright green LCD display shows you all your information, plus an Analog SWR/Wattmeter with backlit LED graces the shack. The tuner? It's the fastest in the industry with a HUGE impedance matching range and multiple antenna connections, plus 300/150 Watt modes and 20,000 Virtual Antenna Memories. MFJ-993B.
